THEATRES

RECORD STARS MAKE BIG HIT AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

This is the Okeh Record Jubilee Week at the Booker Washington Theatre and the persons are getting a treat in the records.

Sarah Martin is the blues' soloist. She is accompanied by Johnnie H. King on the piano. Miss Martin is singing "I'm a Blues Girl," "I'm a Blues Baby," "I've Got The Blues," "I've Had The Blues," "I'm a Blues Baby," "I've Had Some One Else," etc., closing with a dramatic and racy solo. The blues of the revue come with singing "Bluesy Blues." She wins big applause when out her act, Mr. King also contributes a vocal and some guitar work.

Wm. Benbow is here, too, recording musician for the Okeh Co., assisted by Ely Taylor and Clarence Todd, close the show. Their act brings out the biggest laughs. The trio brings out the records in person. The trio opens with "Charleston Stroll." Mr. Williams is in the piano. Miss Taylor sings "African Blues." Mr. Todd sings "African Blues," etc., and is joined by Mr. Williams and Ely Taylor. "Lover Baby," Williams plays "My Own Blues," and the trio closes with "Coke Walking Babes From Home." With Miss Taylor doing an artistic dance, it's a great act, one of rare entertainment.

Tom Hartgraves, St. Louis' own champion dancer, opens the fourth act show. Tom is a versatile performer and is the best all round dancer seen on the stage.

Jenkins and Jenkins, men and women, are very sweet. They open with a trio of song and dance. After some comedy talk, the woman sings "Hard, Hard Hanum," and the men sing over in a bluesy sing. "I've Pecked a Man." They are a vocal and guitar duet, and then close in a storm of applause with "Curious Blues," the man playing a French horn.

BENBOW'S "GET HAPPY" CO. AT BOOKER NEXT WEEK

William Benbow and his "Get Happy" Company will open a week-end engagement at the Booker Washington Theatre on April 11. The company has been on the Columbia Wheel, and is considered one of its best attractions. Their circuit has closed for the season. The cast includes: Shorty Edwards, smallest Colored man on stage; Marlie Baker, Harry Coleman, George Alexander, Odell Irvin, Bertha Scott, Williams and Battle, and a beauty chorus.

GAYETY CLOSES ITS SEASON THIS WEEK

Jimmie Cooper's Black and White Revue. In its second week at the Gayety Theatre, will close the season for the summer Saturday night. The Gayety will remain dark until Aug. 1st.

There have been many wizards of music who show their skill and predict failure when Jimmie Cooper first impressed an army of colored talent in conjunction with his Black and White Revue.

It was a success, but Jimmie Cooper, who discovered that the reputation from week to week of the same style of music would ultimately have a tendency to bring him a short time's attendance, and so he gathered around him the best colored talent he was able to secure. Cooper is an almost perfect combination of the comic, when cleverness and action is well displayed in his show. One can see Jimmie through the various scenes, he is deep, energetic in their artistic and fanciful disorders.

It was Jimmie Cooper who first opened a lane through which the white and colored performers harmonized together. By playing a double show on the luncheon circuit, he has created not only a new style of entertainment, but a new entertainment, but for three years he has concerned producers as well as theatre managers that his innovation of black and white performers in conjunction with white artists has met the no bounded appreciation of the audiences everywhere.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE STAR

"Trouping With Ellen" will be the Star Theatre attraction this Saturday. This is the first time in the history of this story of life behind the scenes of a fascinating tale of stage life, with laughs, tears and love.

First time, and there goes mixed up in an adventure that goes not to falling in love with the pretty little feminine lead of the gang, Carew is led to offer one of his most delightful performances.

Arthur J. Mix will be seen in "Ride 'Em, Bowditch" on Saturday. Al Wilson in "The Cloud Rider" and Matty Mattison in "Slow Dynamite" in Tuesday. Florence Vidor in "The Mirage" Wednesday; are all big attractions.

"Chin-Chin Chow" will be the super feature next Thursday and Friday. It's a gorgeous film version of the most popular Chinese dish ever played in London for five years and three years in America. It tells an elaborate story of ancient Arabian Nights, love, and the Orient. It's a Popeye Thieves, with a great wealth of color scenes and thrilling action. One scene is astounding with its regular cushioned sofa. Edith Balle, rave, there you have a wonderful combination of glistening array of precious jewels, gold and silver, wonderful antique furniture, and a thousand other things that simply dazzle. ## THEATRES-CONTINUED

THE OLYMPIA
Mrs. Wallace Reid in "Brooks Laws" will be at the Olympia Theatre on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. It deals with the necessity for law observance and respect for the laws, particularly as it affects children. It concerns the life of Brooks Laws and Recept of Law in a vivid, dramatic story of two families of a middle west town. What lack of law observance and contempt of children of these two families is told in a masterful manner. The picture has many dramatic scenes, but none of them exceed in interest that concerning Brooks Laws, who killed for the life of his boy, who had killed a woman in an auto accident. The tense dramatic highlights here recall some of the most dramatic scenes seen in dramatic history.

George "O'Hara" in "Darwin Was Right" will be at the Olympia on Tuesday, John Bowes and Marcelline Dietrich, Mother of the Stars in "When a Man's a Man," the special for next Thursday and Friday.

THE COMET

Jack Holt and Lois Wilson are stars in "The Thundering Herd," at the Comet Theatre this Saturday. It is a fast, exciting, action romance which deals with the hardships of a caravan of ploughmen who abandoned their farms in the middle west and made their way across the Indian fields of Wyoming and Montana, at that time a wilderness inhabited by hostile Indians. One of the many things that happen is the shooting of a herd of two thousand buffaloes.

"The Goose Hags High" will be the feature on Monday, "Frivolous Sal" on Tuesday, and "The Masked Dan" on Wednesday; are extra-attraction.

"A Thief in Paradise" will be the attraction on Thursday, Friday, Saturday. It is a love story with Dorothy May, Ronald Colman, Alene Pringle and other well known stars in leading roles. The action of the story follows the Chinese as they leave Macau, Bohemia and into the exclusive social confines of Burleigh and Del Monte. A battle with a man eating shark, lavish scenes of debauchery and a love match between pretty girls in bathing suits are among the highlights.

THE RETINA

Jack Hoxie will be seen in "The Sign of the Cactus" at the Retina Theatre this Saturday. Bodily Roosevelt is the man of the hour, and Grinnell is the Monday feature. "Against All Odds" will be the Tuesday special; "Diane of the Star Hollow" for Wednesday; and "The Last Seduction" "Feverbound" will be shown next Friday.

THE JESTAMERE
"Babitt" will be the feature at the Jestamere Theatre this Saturday. It is taken from Sinclair Lewis' most popular novel. The cast includes and has a cast including William Louis, Mary Astor, Carmel Myers, Cissie Fitzgerald, Dale Fuller, also comedy and news.

THE VENUS
The feature in "The Lighthouse by the Sea" on Sunday, Monday Tuesday and Wednesday. The story concerns itself with the aged lighthouse keeper and his daughter, Louise Fazenda, their helper and his dog, Rin-Tin-Tin, against the brutalities of the sea. The story opens opposite the coast, whose leader, Douglas Gerrard, has promised his love to Louise so as to keep his gang of cut-throats from when his gang of cut-throats make their landing. On the night chosen for their vicious attack, Gerrard, capturing the town, revenges himself and throws the government boat off its pursuit by putting the light out. But Rin-Tin-Tin, whose mind has grasped the situation, sees the part of the crew, Gerrard, manages to start the light again, and then ensues the classic encounter between the two leaders and the runaways, with Rin-Tin-Tin a flashing sword of heroism.

"Enticement" will be shown next Friday. This love story of a girl's love savings from Belgium to the Alps, from Paris to London, with the latest fashions in a background of romance, sighs and chatters. Mary Astor, Clive Brook and Ian Keith are in the cast.

THE CRITERION
Conway Tearle and Madge Kennedy will be seen in "Bad Company," at the Criterion Theatre this Saturday.

"After Six Days" will be the Sunday feature. It presents the story of the Old Testament program of the King Solomon. It shows in vivid pictures the slaying of Abel, the Ark and Deluge, Tower of Babel, Joseph and his Brethren, David and Goliath, and other scenes. It is said to cost more than three million dollars. It will be shown next Thursday. In this love drama, the action ranges from the dives of the South Sea Isles to the streets of New York, Paris, San Francisco and Del Monte, California. Doris Kenyon and Ronald Colman are the other featured players.

Memorial Bonus

A provision has been enacted by the legislative body of the State, granting the privilege of making application for the Missouri State Bonus. Many men serving in the service have been granted permission to make application before Dec. 31, 1922, which was the original time, and this new provision gives those who did not do so another chance.

Do not wait, write to the Mo. State Bonus Commission, Jefferson City, Mo., for the application blank, and apply Legitimately with strictest confidence, getting the application blank.

GET BONUS BLANKS

Through the kindness of Honorable L. C. Dyer, the St. Louis Argus will distribute blanks to all former service men of the World War, who desire to make application for the bonus. Recent act of Congress. These blanks are free and can be had just for the asking. Notary service can also be had.

ADMISSION OF MEXICANS TO THE UNITED STATES IS BEING CONSIDERED

Associated Negro Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—Immigration experts here are studying the laws to determine whether, whether, or not, immigrants from Mexico, South and Central Americans of preponderous Indian blood are barred from entry into this country.

Efforts have been initiated by the Labor Department, which administers the immigration laws, as to the exact racial make-up of the Indians of Latin American countries. It is believed, however, that a person of African descent, he would be barred, it is contended, in some quarters, although a number of other countries might admit him without difficulty.

If the issue arose over a Mexican Indian, it is pointed out, it might come under the terms of a special section of the immigration law, which limits the number of persons of African descent, that might be admitted into the United States.

If the issue arose over a Mexican Indian, it is pointed out, it might come under the terms of a special section of the immigration law, which limits the number of persons of African descent, that might be admitted into the United States.

The bill might apply to Canadian Indians, although this again, treaty conditions would be considered.

By a law in 1920, the right of naturalization was restricted to "free white persons" and to those who were granted to "read and understand of African American and persons of African descent." The 1924 law, in turn, forbids entry into the United States of persons incapable of reading and writing.

Thus, on the face of the law, the lists would appear to be closed to all but persons of unquestionable white blood.

In several Latin-American countries, notably Mexico, persons of Indian descent form a very large percentage of the total population.
